In addition to filling out the basic application for the use of a restricted fund, the following proposal outline should be completed by all applicants requesting $10,000 or more. Please attach separate sheets with your responses and mark each section clearly.

Proposal Outline (The applicant should write the proposal in a concise, narrative format following the outline below.)

Description of the Project

- A. Provide an overview of the project, including goals and specific needs to be met.
- B. What is the intended audience?
- C. What is the projected number of participants or people served?
- D. What is the planned period of the project, including starting and ending dates? (Grants must be used within two years from the date the grant is distributed.)
- E. What is the budget for the project?

Project Management

- A. Provide the name of the office or committee of the governing body responsible for managing the project.
- B. What is the name and title of the project leader?
- C. If a new structure is being formed to direct this project, please specify its membership (how are they chosen and names) and frequency of reporting to the governing body.

Evaluation

- A. An evaluation is required of recipients of all grants. If a grant is not expended within one year of being awarded, the RFOS may request a mid-term evaluation asking about progress toward stated goals, activities, and financial accounting.
- B. Attach a description of the plan used to evaluate the project for meeting goals and effectiveness.

Changes

- A. Requests to extend the time for spending the funds beyond the two-year limit must be made in writing, including reasons for requesting the extension, and must be approved in writing by the RFOS chair.
- B. Requests to modify the spending plan must be requested in writing, including reasons for the changes, and must be approved in writing by the RFOS chair.
- C. Any funds not spent for purposes specified in the grant must be returned.
