

Presbyterian Mission
Compassion, Peace & Justice

A WORLD UPROOTED

RESPONDING TO
 MIGRANTS, REFUGEES
 AND DISPLACED
 PEOPLE

2018 CPJ Training Day

April 20, 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

New York Avenue Presbyterian Church
1313 New York Avenue NW
Washington, DC

Agenda for the Day

8:00 a.m. ..... Registration (Radcliffe Room, Main Level)

8:30–10:35..... Welcome and Opening Plenary
 (Main Sanctuary, Second Level)

Opening Plenary

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Matilde Moros, Assistant Professor with the Dept. of Gender Sexuality & Women’s Studies, Virginia Commonwealth University

“Voices from an Uprooted World”: Rev. James Choul, Executive Director, Presbyterian Relief and Development Agency; Maha Kolko, Co-sponsorship Developer, Kentucky Refugee Ministries; Elmer Zavala, Pastor, Presbyterian Hispanic Latino Ministry of Preston Highway (KY); Esther Jeon, Immigrant Rights Fellow, National Korean American Service on Education Consortium

10:45–12:00 ..... Workshop Session 1

12:10–1:10 ..... Lunch (Radcliffe Room, Main Level and Park Level Main)

“The State of Palestinian Refugees: UNRWA and the Current U.S. Funding Freeze” with Elizabeth Campbell, Director, UNRWA Representative Office, Washington, DC.

1:20–2:35 ..... Workshop Session 2

2:45–4:00 ..... Workshop Session 3

4:10–4:30 ..... Sending (Main Sanctuary, Second Level)

Compassion, Peace & Justice Training Day is made possible by your gifts and the gifts of your congregation to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).