

ADENEY-RISAKOTTA EASTER LETTER Photo captions

From left to right: top row:

1. Farsijana cooks an Indonesian chicken in the kitchen of the College Avenue Presbyterian Church in Oakland CA,
2. Rice
3. Chicken
4. Tofu Curry
5. John LaMotte and Christina Fonua prepare assemble the meals that will be served at front door of the gymnasium at College Avenue Presbyterian Church.

From left to right: bottom row:

1. Fredora Darmstadt serves a meal to Carl.
2. The open door of College Avenue Presbyterian Church in Oakland CA.
3. A colorful clergy stole rests on a wooden table.
4. Farsijana leads a discussion with Pujiastuti, the administrator at the House Authentic Sense Foundation, and Siprianus Nahak, a Master Management's student at Duta Wacana Christian University, about the $300 grant given by College Avenue Presbyterian Church. This grant will be used to empower women at Timor island to make clergy stoles utilizing the traditional woven fabrics made by the indigenous people.
5. Sipirianus Nahak holds up a traditional ikat from Timor island in Indonesia.