My name is Ana Miller and I am from Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. I am 19 years old and I grew up in a multicultural household on a farm. My father is from the United States and my mother is from Colombia, South America. Growing up I was able to be a part of two beautiful cultures that are very unique and different from each other. I have been a part of the Presbyterian Church for four years. I am currently working at a daycare for children of migrant workers. I have decided to serve with the YAV because I want to grow in my faith, and I would love to get to know a different part of the vast cultures of the United States.

I have been looking for something that I feel is going to really stick with me for the rest of my life. I want to learn more about myself and my faith by being challenged out of my comfort zone.
