The virtual BURM Network Conference is October 28, 29 and 30, 2021. Conference sessions are designed to engage and inform you about Christians, Conditions, and Issues in the Belarus, Ukraine, and Russia area.

Connecting is the theme for Thursday, October 28. There is time to meet other conference participants – other Presbyterians interested in this area of mission work. There are speakers from the U.S. and from Russia to talk about the importance of partnerships, face-to-face interactions, and remote connections. We conclude with Partnership Breakouts – choose to participate with Olga Mitskevich and Karen Morey to discuss “Re-Energizing Your Partnership” or participate with Sergey Grokhotov and Ralph Clingan to discuss “Developing a New Partnership.” Thursday’s conference begins at 11 ET/10 CT/9 MT/8 PT and ends at 2 ET/1 CT/12 MT/11 PT with two 15-minute breaks.

Belarus and Migration Issues are addressed on Friday, October 29. Learn about the militarization of migrants and how they are being exploited in Belarus and the region. Our speakers include Natia Tsintsadze, Executive Director of World Student Christian Federation (WSCF) – Europe, Michal Jablonski with the Reformed Church of Poland, and a second speaker from WSCF-Europe. There will be time for questions and answers following the presentations by our speakers. Friday's conference begins at 11 ET/10CT/9 MT/8 PT and ends at 1:15 ET/12:15 CT/11:15 MT/10:15 PT with one 15-minute break.

Saturday, October 30, features presentations specifically about the trauma of children in migration. Our speakers have first-hand experience in this area. They are Alla Sorka from This Child Here, Daniel Ekot and Pastor Jessica Derise from the Moscow Protestant Chaplaincy, and Susan Krehbiel, of the Presbyterian Mission Agency. We have a time for questions and answers will conclude the conference with prayer requests and prayer.
