My name is Bryan Bergman and I am proud to serve as a YAV in Indianapolis for the coming year. In 2015 I earned a degree in communication studies from the University of Alabama, which is also where I converted from Judaism to Christianity. I'm originally from Cincinnati and living so close to Indianapolis means it has always been a special place to me. My passions include sports (Roll Tide!), film and history. I hope that this year will give me a greater understanding of what it means to be Presbyterian and how I can best serve God and His people.
