

Presbyterian Mission
Compassion, Peace & Justice

2019 CPJ Training Day

April 5, 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
 New York Avenue Presbyterian Church
 1313 New York Avenue NW, Washington, D.C.

'Troubling the Waters'

for the Healing of the World

#GoodTrouble

Agenda

8:00 a.m. Registration (Radcliffe Room, Main Level)

8:30–10:35 Welcome and Opening Plenary (Main Sanctuary, Second Level)

Sermon: "From Trouble Maker to Prophet" 1 Kings 18:17–24 (Matthew 21:12–17)
 Rev. Jimmie Hawkins, Director, Office of Public Witness, Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Keynote: "Challenging the Myth of Powerlessness"
 David LaMotte, award-winning songwriter, speaker, author, and activist. President of PEG Partners, the non-profit organization founded to support schools and libraries in Guatemala and Clerk of the Nobel Peace Prize Nominating Task Group for the American Friends Service Committee.

10:45–12:00 Workshop Session 1

12:10–1:10 Lunch (Radcliffe Room, Main Level and Park Level Main)
"Movement Building and Organizing in a Time of Fear"
 Samantha Paige Davis, advocate, trainer, speaker, mentor, and unyielding optimist. Founder and Executive Director of the Black Swan Academy and Field Engagement Director at the YWCA–USA.

1:20–2:35 Workshop Session 2

2:45–4:00 Workshop Session 3

4:10–4:30 Sending (Main Sanctuary, Second Level)

Compassion, Peace & Justice Training Day is made possible by your gifts and the gifts of your congregation to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).