My name is Chris Nellett, I am 23 years old. I enjoy Reality TV, bad puns, and making movie quotes from 80's movies that no one gets! I graduated with a Religious Studies degree from the University of Arizona (Go Wildcats!) in May 2016. I will be doing my YAV year in Boston, which should be a lot cooler than Arizona! I'm excited/nervous for my first REAL snow! I'm not sure what I'll be doing after YAV, but I hope whatever I may do it'll make the world a better place.
