

YOU ARE INVITED...

By Presbyterian Committee on the Self-Development of People... a ministry affirming God's concern for humankind. We are Presbyterians and ecumenical partners dissatisfied with poverty and oppression, united in faith and action through sharing, confronting, and enabling. We participate in the empowerment of economically poor people seeking to change the structures that perpetuate poverty, oppression and injustice.

Gathering of church leaders to participate in discussion on ways to promote and interpret the One Great Hour of Sharing offering and ways to creatively engage in the ministry of SDOP

The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord. - Luke 4: 18-19
