Hey y'all! I'm Ekama Eni. I'm a 1.5 generation Nigerian-American immigrant, I was born and raised in the United Kingdom and my family immigrated to the US when I was 10 years old. By the grace of God, I call myself a Texan and I live in Denton, TX with my parents, twin sister and little brother. As of this Summer 2016, I am a proud graduate of the University of North Texas with a B.A. in Psychology and a minor in Counseling. I love music, food (mostly eating), talking about politics and finding opportunities to have fun and create beautiful memories.

I'm super excited to return to the island of my birth for the next year and begin some new adventures and explore what God has in store for me. Upon my return, I plan on continuing my education and working to further my passion for human resources and engaging employers and employees in the journey of vocation!
