Hello there! My name is Emi Lungmus. I am a 22 year old from the north shore of Chicago. I recently graduated from Clemson University (go Tigers), where I double majored in production studies (performing arts) and religious studies.

I am currently a Young Adult Volunteer in Daejeon, South Korea. I love traveling, eating, the outdoors, and all forms of art. My majors at Clemson allowed me to study different cultures by looking at the arts and religions that shape our world. I am excited to continue learning more about the similarities and differences between various cultures, to help promote peace and celebrate diversity during my time in South Korea and beyond.
