Pillars of the Church

"And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

(Matthew 22:35–40)

Jesus taught us to love God and to love our neighbor. These are the pillars of our faith. Living by the great commandment compels us to make a difference in people's lives.

One way you may choose is to become a Pillar of the Church with your monthly sustaining gift to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

To join Pillars of the Church, engaging in God's mission for the transformation of the world, go to pcusa.org/pillars and choose the ministry area that you'd like to support.

We are grateful for your support and will recognize you with a Pillar of the Church certificate.

Join us with your commitment today.
