

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6 NRSV

Dear friends,

As we wait again this year, and then celebrate again the birth of Jesus, let us remember all the hopes and dreams of those who waited for his birth in day past and our hopes and joys as we celebrate his birth both in the cradle and in our hearts. Let us join together in gratitude, even in the face of all that has we have been through in the past year. As we journey on into 2022, may we continue to hold fast to the hopes, the dreams, the blessings that came into the world that Christmas day.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

Janet

Celebrating Christmas 2019 with neighboring children also living on the Livingstonia Synod compound