

Fellowship With a Human Story

“you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” (Luke 2:12)

We celebrate God who came to live among us with a human face on Christmas Day. God did not come to us with doctrines and ideologies. Logos became flesh. When we see the real human story of the Logos, it is the glory of God.

We long for human stories in this polarized world. Whether we are on the right or the left, in the West or in the East, poor or rich, we all are beloved daughters and sons of mothers.

Whenever there are political, racial, cultural, or religious divisions and conflicts, we tend not to pay attention to human stories. Since God came to us with a human face, we long for a fellowship with real human stories.

When Jieun and I did our first Interpretation Ministry in the U.S., we tried to share human stories in East Asia. Some were heartbreaking, others were amazing, and still others were joyful stories of the people in East Asia. We will continue to share the people’s life stories in East Asia, so we shall “beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.”

Thank you for supporting and praying for us to be with us!

Emmanuel! God is with us (with a human face)!
