My name is Jason Rhee and I am 22 years old. I recently graduated from the College of Wooster with a bachelor of arts in political science. I grew up in Sydney, Australia and Louisville, Kentucky. I am the child of a Baptist missionary, and for much of the past few years I have been finding my identity beyond that. I am excited to spend the next year growing alongside my fellow YAVs in D.C. At this point my goals are to decide which route I want to pursue in public service, continue to improve myself and better learn how to understand people who are different from myself.
