My name is Kim Jurczyk and I'm 22 years old. I've recently graduated from Penn State University with degrees in English and Communication Arts and Sciences, and am ecstatic to be traveling to Zambia for my YAV year. I decided to volunteer for a year in Lusaka not only to help others but to also have a truly unforgettable spiritual experience. This upcoming year might be hard but I am looking forward to learning and growing while dedicating my life to something truly worthwhile.
