Worship in the Matthew 25 Church

The Beatitudes may be spoken by three leaders; for a shorter version, use only the first beatitude in each section.

Opening Sentences

Jesus says:
Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.
And blessed is the church
that serves with the love of God to eradicate systemic poverty.

Jesus says:
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.
And blessed is the church
that trusts in the grace of Christ to build congregational vitality.

Jesus says:
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when people revile you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.
And blessed is the church
that seeks by the power of the Spirit to dismantle structural racism.
Blessed are you, O holy, triune God,
and blessed is your holy realm forever.

Gathering Prayer

Holy God, by your Word and Spirit, come and transform your church to be a living sign of your love for the world — where the poor are filled with good things,
the dividing walls are broken down,
and the dead are raised to new life;
through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.
Confession and Pardon

A voice is crying out in the wilderness:
Prepare the way of the Lord.

Trusting in God’s grace, let us confess our sin.
There may be a time of silence for personal confession.

Merciful God, we confess that we have wandered from your way of truth and life.
You call us to share all that we have and work together for the common good, but we hoard up treasures for ourselves and deny others their daily bread.
You call us to set the captives free and seek justice for the oppressed, but we live in fear of our neighbors and hide ourselves from our own kin.
You call us to walk in newness of life and to be witnesses to the resurrection, but we dwell in the valley of dry bones and keep silent about your saving love.

Forgive us, God of grace.
Set us free from sin, death and fear so that we may serve you with gladness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The presider pours or lifts water at the baptismal font:
Hear the good news: God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the gift of the Holy Spirit.
I declare to you in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God.

Prayer for Illumination

Speak to us, O God, with the voice of your Holy Spirit, that we may know the way of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

The affirmation of faith may be led from the baptismal font.

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives.

We trust in God, whom Jesus called Abba, Father.
In sovereign love God created the world good and makes everyone equally in God’s image to live as one community.
We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life.
The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.
With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer of Intercession

Jesus says: Ask, and it will be given you;
search, and you will find;
knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Trusting in Christ’s grace, let us offer our prayers for the church and the world, neighbors and loved ones, saying, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Systemic Poverty

We ask your provision for all people.
Teach us compassion and generosity.
Put an end to economic exploitation.
Fill this world with your abundant life.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Structural Racism

We search for your beloved community.
Break down systems of oppression.
Dismantle patterns of privilege.
Establish justice and equality for all.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Congregational Vitality

We knock at the door of your house.
Gather us in as disciples of your way.
Nourish us in faith and faithfulness.
Send us out to share good news.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Other intercessions may be offered; then the presider prays:

Living God, we ask, we search, we knock — answer our prayers with the power of your Spirit, who transforms our lives to do your will;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offering

Jesus says: The realm of heaven has come near.
Freely you have received; therefore, freely give.

Let us offer our lives to the Lord.

An offering may be received in support of the church’s mission to eradicate systemic poverty, dismantle structural racism and build congregational vitality.

Invitation to the Lord’s Table

The table is prepared for the Lord’s Supper; then the presider says:

Jesus says: Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Jesus says: How often have I desired to gather you together, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings.
Great Thanksgiving

The introductory dialogue (“The Lord be with you”) may be spoken.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God:
You have created us in your own image.
You have claimed us as your beloved people.
You have called us to be a blessing for others.
Therefore we praise you, joining the song of the universal church and the heavenly choir.

The Sanctus (“Holy, holy, holy”) may be spoken or sung.

Blessed is Jesus Christ, our Savior:
Jesus called disciples to follow in your way.
He fed the hungry and healed the sick.
He loved neighbors and welcomed strangers.

The words of institution are included here, if not elsewhere.

Remembering your goodness and grace
we offer ourselves to you with gratitude as we share this joyful feast.

A Memorial Acclamation (“Christ has died”) may be spoken or sung.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and cup;
make us one in the body and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Keep us faithful in your service until justice and peace embrace and all things are made new and heaven and earth are one.
Through the Lord Jesus Christ,
in the unity of the Spirit,
we bless you, God of glory,
now and forever. Amen.

The Amen may be spoken or sung. The Lord’s Prayer follows.

Breaking of the Bread

The presider breaks the bread (and pours the cup) in silence, then says:

Jesus says: Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Prayer after Communion

Blessed are you, O Lord our God,
for you have filled us with your life and love.
Now send us out to share these gifts with others;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing and Charge

The God who was and is and is to come is with us in Christ Jesus.
The blessing of the triune God
be with you all. Alleluia!
Jesus says: Remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age. Thanks be to God.
Thanksgiving for Baptism

The introductory dialogue (“The Lord be with you”) may be spoken.

O Lord our God, we give you thanks that through the sign of baptism you have marked us for a new creation — where all people are reconciled, and there is an abundant feast, and the saints sing night and day. By the power of your Holy Spirit, poured out upon the church, let our witness, work and worship proclaim the promise of your coming realm of righteousness, justice and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The presider may splash water on the people, saying:

Remember your baptism and be thankful.

Thanks be to God.

Invitation to Discipleship

Jesus says: Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

A leader may extend the invitation to become a Matthew 25 church or presbytery.

Litany of Lament

This lament of Jesus is based on the seven “woes” of Matthew 23, the condemnations of Matthew 25, and the Solemn Reproaches of the Good Friday liturgy (see 2018 BCW, pp. 288–289, 308–309).

The seven woes may be divided among multiple readers, speaking from the congregation.

A time of silence should follow each lament and response (“Lord, have mercy”).

From the cross our Savior cries:

My people, my church, why have you forsaken me?

Woe to you when you satisfy yourselves with a rich feast and pass by those who beg for bread — for you have made a cross for your Savior.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Woe to you when you are drunk with power and privilege and ignore those who thirst for justice and dignity — for you have made a cross for your Savior.

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Woe to you
when you open your hands to grasp and take and close your doors to strangers in need —
for you have made a cross for your Savior.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Woe to you
when you adorn yourselves with honor and despise the naked because of their skin —
for you have made a cross for your Savior.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Woe to you
when you anoint yourselves with precious oil and deny healing and wholeness to others —
for you have made a cross for your Savior.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Woe to you
when you flaunt and abuse your freedom and allow the oppressed to remain in captivity —
for you have made a cross for your Savior.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Woe to you
when you sing my praise
and study my teaching and say your prayers in my name and still fail to recognize me in the faces of your neighbors —
for you have made a cross for your Savior.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Prayer of Thanksgiving
For use after the offering when the Eucharist is not celebrated.

We give you thanks and praise, O Lord:
You have created us in your own image.
You have claimed us as your beloved people.
You have called us to be a blessing for others.
Use the gifts of your good creation and the works of our hands
to lift up the oppressed,
break down dividing walls,
and build up your church;
all in the name and for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Littany of Commitment
The litany of commitment is led from the baptismal font; worshipers are invited to turn and face the font.

Jesus says: Repent,
for the realm of heaven has come near.
I invite you, in the name of Christ,
to turn from what is evil and turn to what is good,
rejecting all that is contrary to the gospel and embracing the vision of the Matthew 25 church.
Do you renounce the evils of systemic poverty and economic exploitation? We renounce them!

Will you devote yourself to doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with your God? We will, with God’s help.

Do you renounce the sins of structural racism and white supremacy? We renounce them!

Will you devote yourself to breaking down the walls of hostility that separate us from one another? We will, with God’s help.

Do you renounce the ways of fear, isolation and scarcity in the church? We renounce them!

Will you devote yourself to the church’s teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers? We will, with God’s help.

An affirmation of faith may follow.

Beatitudes for a Matthew 25 Church

These phrases, based on the Beatitudes (Matt. 5:1–12) and the Matthew 25 priorities of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), may be used as a call to worship, response to the sermon or charge at the conclusion of worship.

Systemic Poverty

- Blessed are those who serve the poor, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who share the wealth, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who work for good, they will be called the children of God.

Structural Racism

- Blessed are those who open doors, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who break down walls, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who challenge hate, they will be called the children of God.

Congregational Vitality

- Blessed are those who live their faith, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who speak the truth, they will be called the children of God.
- Blessed are those who show Christ’s love, they will be called the children of God.
Morning Prayer

Opening Sentences
Matt. 5:14, 16

Jesus says: You are the light of the world.
Let your light shine before others.

Prayer

Water may be poured.

Come, Holy Spirit —
pour out your blessing
in our lives this day.
Amen.

Psalm

Pray a morning psalm, such as 5, 19, 51, 63, 95, 100 or 150. Silence may follow.

Scripture

Read one chapter of Matthew each day of the month. On the 29th–31st, read other Scriptures.

Prayer
Matt. 25:31–46

Lord Jesus Christ,
as this new day begins
help us to recognize you
when our neighbors say:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Day</th>
<th>Message</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sun</td>
<td>I am present ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mon</td>
<td>I am hungry ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tue</td>
<td>I am thirsty ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wed</td>
<td>I am a stranger ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thu</td>
<td>I am vulnerable ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fri</td>
<td>I am sick ...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sat</td>
<td>I am in prison ...</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Give us minds to know you,
hearts to love you,
and strength to serve you,
this day and always.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer may follow.

Dismissal
Matt. 1:23

God is with us in Jesus Christ.
Thanks be to God.
Bless the Lord.
The Lord's name be praised.
A sign of peace may be exchanged by all.

Evening Prayer

Opening Sentences
Matt. 14:27

Jesus says: Take heart, I am here.
Do not be afraid.

Prayer

A candle may be lighted.

Come, Holy Spirit —
kindle the fire of faith
in our hearts this night.
Amen.

Psalm

Pray an evening psalm, such as 1, 8, 27, 65, 104, 113 or 141. Silence may follow.

Scripture

Read one chapter of Matthew each day of the month. On the 29th–31st, read other Scriptures.

Prayer
Matt. 25:31–46

Lord Jesus Christ,
at the close of this day
we remember our neighbors
and we ask ourselves:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Day</th>
<th>Message</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sun</td>
<td>When did I recognize you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mon</td>
<td>When did I give you food?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tue</td>
<td>When did I give you drink?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wed</td>
<td>When did I welcome you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thu</td>
<td>When did I protect you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fri</td>
<td>When did I care for you?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sat</td>
<td>When did I visit you?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Bless what we have done,
forgive what we have failed to do,
and make us ready to meet you
when you come in glory.
Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer may follow.

Matt. 28:20

Jesus says: I am with you always.
Thanks be to God.
Bless the Lord.
The Lord’s name be praised.
A sign of peace may be exchanged by all.
