My name is Sarah-Dianne Jones. I am 22 years old and a recent graduate of Maryville College with a degree in Religion. I am thrilled to be serving as a Young Adult Volunteer in Washington DC, especially after spending my whole life in small, southern towns! I look forward to seeing how my sense of call to ministry is influenced and changed throughout my year of service, and pray that I might have a positive impact on those that I am blessed enough to cross paths with.
