Hello! My name is Susannah Bryant and I am a recent graduate of Wofford College with degrees in English and Environmental Studies. Wofford is a small liberal arts school in Spartanburg, South Carolina, right down the road from my hometown of Clinton, SC. While studying there, I enjoyed serving in the Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity and as a co-moderator for Spartanburg UKirk. If my majors weren't indication enough, I spend a lot of my time reading and hiking, but I also love singing and making all kinds of art. I'm so grateful to have the support of my family, friends, and two churches— First Presbyterian Church of Clinton and Second Presbyterian Church of Spartanburg—as I venture out to Zambia for my year as a YAV. I could not be more excited to have this opportunity to experience and share God's grace, love, and peace in a world that so desperately needs all three.
