My name is Brett Eisenhauer. I am 23 years old and from Mahomet, Illinois. In May I will be graduating from Murray State University with a degree in nonprofit leadership studies and a minor in organizational communication. If I am not in class you can find me at a coffee shop, walking a dog or reading in my hammock. During my time in college I have had the opportunity to serve my church as the campus ministry intern working on outreach, fellowship and fundraising. I am so excited to be a part of a program that has been in my heart since my freshman year of high school. I can think of no better way to begin my next adventure in life than serving alongside those within the YAV program in Washington, D.C.
