

Collegiate Ministry Grant Programs

The Presbyterian Mission Agency is currently seeking proposals for 2020 focused on responding to COVID-19 and dismantling structural racism. This collection of grants is available for UKirk-Registered ministries and Presbyterian-related schools, colleges and universities.

Deadline: Revolving, as funds remain available. Submissions receiving by the 1st of the month will be read for selection by the 15th of the month.

UKirk Pivot Grant

This is a collegiate ministry grant program offering $500 grants to UKirk-registered ministries to support a “pivot” to new ways of doing ministry.

For more information about this program and how to become UKirk registered ministry reach out to stephanie.fritz@pcusa.org

Apply Now!

Wolf-Schick Maintenance Grant

Warren Wilson College or Westminster College (Salt Lake, UT) have first preference. After that any Presbyterian Church (USA) related college, university, or secondary school.

The Wolf-Schick Maintenance Grant provides support for the construction of needed buildings such as dormitories, school buildings, libraries, hospitals, including equipment for the same. Presbyterian Mission Agency is seeking proposals equipment and/or technology purchases up to $1,000 that will support collegiate ministry needs.

Apply Now!

Teaching the Bible Grant

This is a Presbyterian-related school, college, and university program offering grants of up to $2,500 to support teaching the Bible and the fundamental beliefs of Christian churches. The program normally supports new projects, but in 2020, Presbyterian Mission Agency requests that institutions help us build a record of this year of lament and hope.

Apply Now!

Martin Award

This is a Teaching the Bible grant award reserved Manual School, Presbyterian Pan-American School, and Stillman College. Institutions are invited to participate in the same task as their peers in Teaching of the Bible Grant. The range of award for the Martin Award is up to $5,000.

For more information on the Martin Award please contact tim.mcalister@pcusa.org

Apply Now!

For more information, contact finaid@pcusa.org.

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
Presbyterian Mission