Hey, my name is Nathaniel Burt but everyone calls me Nate. I'm 20 years old and from Birmingham, Alabama. I attend the University of Montevallo, as a sophomore, pursuing a degree in environmental studies. This coming fall, I will be taking a gap year from college to serve as a Young Adult Volunteer in New Orleans. This is an exciting opportunity for me to work with others to help the community while learning and growing in my faith. I'm excited about this new adventure and can't wait to see what God has in store for me!
