PRESBYTERIAN COMMITTEE ON THE Self-Development of People

Are you involved in a community growth project or program based on human dignity and self-reliance?

Are you a working partner in a low income, grass roots group searching for long-term solutions to the systemic problems that keep people poor and oppressed?

Is the project or program controlled by those who will benefit from the collective effort?

Does the project or program you're actively participating in empower you and others involved in it?

Can you tell us why there is a need for additional funding?

If you answered yes to these questions apply now for a grant from the Presbyterian Committee on the Self Development of People.

(no denominational connection required)

Receive more information or request an application by calling the national office of Self-Development of People at (888) 728-7228, ext. 5782 or go online to www.pcusa.org/sdop

Funding decisions are made in January, May, and September.
