

Wolf-Schick Maintenance Grant

Introduction

The Wolf-Schick Maintenance Grant provides support for the construction of needed buildings such as dormitories, school buildings, libraries, hospitals, including equipment for the same.

With funding in 2019 available to support an award up to $20,000, Presbyterian Mission Agency seeks proposals from Warren Wilson College and Westminster (Salt Lake, UT) first. If no proposals are forthcoming, we will consider proposals from any institution defined as a Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) related college, university, or secondary school. The deadline for this program is June 1 for named institutions.

Contact Laura Bryan at laura.bryan@pcusa.org, call 800-728-7228 ext. 5735 for more information.

Proposal Guidelines & Program Information

Application Process

The deadline for proposals is June 1, with the first awards announced by July 1.

Evaluation and Selection of Awards

The first reading of proposals is completed by Financial Aid for Service to determine a rationale for funding use that is in accordance with donor intent, and reporting requirements based on measureable outcomes.

A reading committee comprised of representatives from the Presbyterian Mission Agency shall read the applications and make selections.

After awardees are selected, Financial Aid for Service draws up a grant agreement encompassing the proposal, reporting requirements, and a disbursement schedule. After the awardee signs the award agreement and first payment are released.
